Nuclear Medicine Week

Date: July 30-August 5, 1989

Program: Nuclear Medicine Week provides the opportunity to educate the general public and other health care professionals of the diagnostic capabilities of nuclear medicine.

Contact: Nuclear Medicine Week, The Society of Nuclear Medicine, 136 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10016-6760. Attn. Virginia M. Pappas, CAE. (212) 889-0717; FAX (212) 545-0221

July 1989

17-21: Eleventh Annual Diagnostic Imaging Seminar. Harbor House Hotel, Nantucket Island, Massachusetts. Sponsored by the Department of Radiology Hospital of the University of Pennsylvania. This course will feature discussions on diagnostic imaging from faculty members of University of Pennsylvania and guest lecturers from the University of California. 22 hr Category I credit available. Fees: $475; $375 residents. Contact: Janice Ford or Nancy Fedullo, Dept. of Radiology, Hospital of the Univ. of Pennsylvania, 3400 Spruce St., Philadelphia, PA 19104. (215) 662-6904/6982.

10-14: Thirteenth Leeds Gastroenterology Course for Radiologists. St. James' University Hospital, Leeds, England. Sponsored by the University of Leeds in Association with the Royal College of Radiology. Topics presented will include diffuse liver disease, liver transplantation, biliary radiology, abdominal trauma, inflammatory bowel disease, pelvic disorders. Fee: $300. Contact: Janice Ford, Dept. of Radiology, Hospital of the Univ. of Pennsylvania, 3400 Spruce St., Philadelphia, PA 19104. (215) 662-6904.

September 1989

8-9: MRI for Radiologic Technologists. Baylor College of Medicine. This is a two-day course designed to introduce the technologist to the fundamentals of magnetic resonance imaging, its capabilities and various techniques of application. Appropriate background for MRI will be provided including basic nuclear magnetic phenomena, modification required for imaging, the current state of clinical knowledge, and a survey of the future potential for in vivo MRI. Fee: $200. Contact: Stewart C. Bushong, ScD, Professor of Radiologic Science, Dept. of Radiology, Baylor College of Medicine, Houston, TX 77030. (713) 799-4416.

13-16: Sixteenth Annual Refresher Course of Musculoskeletal Disorders. The Grand Hyatt, New York. Sponsored by the International Skeletal Society. The program is designed to present a review of current knowledge and future trends in musculoskeletal disorders. An interdisciplinary faculty of over 70 radiologists, orthopedic surgeons, and pathologists will consider various aspects of bone and joint disease. Newer concepts and recent developments in the area of skeletal radiology including magnetic resonance imaging, computed tomography, arthrography, and bone scanning will be emphasized. 27 hr Category I credit available. Fee: $400; $175 residents. Contact: Maria Andrew Pritchett. (212) 986-1277.

20-22: Fourteenth Annual Nuclear Cardiology Symposium and Workshop. Hyatt Regency Hotel, Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Sponsored by the University of Wisconsin, Sinai Samaritan Medical, and University of Wisconsin Medical School. The meeting is designed to provide a comprehensive review of current techniques. It will feature workshops and exhibits. AMA Category I and VOICE credits available. Contact: Sarah Aslakson, Continuing Medical Education, 2715 Marshall Ct., Madison, WI 53705. (608) 263-2856.

23-25: Wynfrey Hotel Galleria Plaza, Birmingham Alabama. Sponsored by the University of Alabama. This course is designed for practicing physicians, sonographers, and vascular technologists and provides instruction in the clinical applications of duplex scanning. Workshops will be offered to demonstrate scanning techniques. 18 Category I credit available. Fees: $375; $275 residents. Contact: Dawne Ryals, Ryals & Associates, PO Box 920113, Norcross, GA 30092-0113. (404) 641-9773.

October 1989

7-8: The Age of Organ Transplantation and Immunology. Hyatt Regency Indianapolis, Indiana. Topics include nuclear medicine studies in transplantation, practical radiopharmacy, radiolabelled antibodies and tissue specific receptors, nuclear orthopedics, technical nuclear medicine applications. 12 hr Category I credit available. Fees: $75-85 physician/scientist; $50-60 technologist. Contact: Central Chapter, SNM, 2321 Fourth St., Suite 111, Tucker, GA 33084. (404) 493-4524.

27-29: Southeastern Chapter, 30th Annual Meeting. Hyatt Orlando Hotel, Kissimmee, Florida. The program will include invited educational papers, workshop discussion sessions, submitted scientific papers, extensive commercial exhibition of imaging and other equipment, and radiopharmaceuticals. Fees: $100; $60 technologist. Contact: Dr. Vincent J. Sodd, Southeastern Chapter, SNM, 5987 Turpin Hills Dr., Cincinnati, OH 45244. (513) 231-6955.
