

Sirona Complete Care is excited to be entering into its 10th year! We are 100% Women Owned and cannot be more proud of what we have accomplished. We have so much to be thankful for and it is all attributed to those who followed and supported us.

After being in the Industry collectively for over 35 years we decided to start Sirona Complete Care with attention solely on our end users and our Partnerships.

Sirona has become a leading resource for Molecular Imaging (Nuclear Medicine/Nuclear Cardiology/PET) Accessory Products and Services. We take pride in ensuring every request whether large or small is handled efficiently and accurately.

Sirona is PROUD to be a Women Owned, Small Business accessory distributor for Biodex, Capintec, Ludlum, Eckert & Ziegler as well as countless others. Just a few of the products we provide are Radioactive sources, QA for all PET cameras, table pads (all modalities), positioners, lung kits, tubing, shielding, and radiation safety products including aprons.

Sirona Complete Care now more than ever is committed to sourcing out new products to assist in Molecular Imaging as well as other areas from a physicians office to the large Hospitals. We are continually adding new products and staying ahead of the curve with the every changing needs of our end users.
