Nuclear Medicine Technology Programs Accredited by the Joint Review Committee

The Joint Review Committee (JRC) accredits training programs in nuclear medicine technology, provided that the program fulfills certain previously established criteria. As a service to JNMT readers, we are publishing the most recent list of accredited schools. Questions relating to specific programs should be addressed to the particular program director. Other questions pertaining to the JRC listing may be addressed to Elaine Cuklanz, JRCNMT Chairman, 445 South 300 East, Salt Lake City, UT 84111.
